

WANAMAKER'S WANAMAKER'S WANAMAKER'S WANAMAKER'S

An Exhibition of Fine Furs

OPENINGS are continual at Wanamaker's, so that we never think of designating a special display by such an empty name. Yet exhibitions are just as needful to show the power and scope of the store as are the maneuvers of warships to impress friend and foe with the power and prowess of a nation.

This is a Fur Store, as complete, as far-reaching in its search for peltry and for styles of working them, as though we had no other business to care for. Its management could win fame if its leader opened a shop on his own account—would have fame as a first asset.

We put the same calm study and hard work into the fur business as into our other branches—we eliminate waste—the waste of time and the waste of dulness. Our organization and all of the space, except the continually-busy workroom, are diverted to other purposes when the fur season ends—no one has to pay us profits to cover eight months of rumination.

To-day, the formal showing of the fine furs we have gathered for Our Public.

The decorative effects are fine and in keeping with the occasion.

Taxidermist Wm. W. Hart arranged the magnificent tableaux—

"An Interrupted Feast," said to be the finest piece of animal mounting ever shown. A tiger crouches on a rock with a young bleeding ibex between its paws. Just below another tiger has crouched for a spring to combat. The eyes of the enemy meet! It is claimed the animals shown were really secured while in conflict. Group is fifteen feet long.

"A Kodiak Grizzly Bear and Panther," a group almost as fine, stands over ten feet high. A death struggle between the animals—the panther apparently about to win. The bear was killed in the Kodiak Islands of Alaska and is unusually large.

There is a lion so natural that you half expect to hear his roar—mounted to serve as a sculptor's study. Every vein and muscle seems to show the height of taxidermic art. It is comparable with the bronzes of Barye.

And there are many fine single pieces besides—yet the splendid show is merely a feature for your enjoyment, as is the Broadway window display with its rare pictures of sealing on St. Paul Island, the fine mounted animal-skin rugs from our own ample stocks (in the third-floor rug store), and the splendid fur garments. The average fur "opening" is a show of borrowed pieces. All in this window display are drawn from our own stocks. Some hints of the garments—

Russian Sable Cape, 38 inches deep, with wide ruffe. $3,000.
Russian Sable English Box-Coat; collar and revers finished with white velvet. $1,200.
Newmarket of fine Alaska seal skin; collar and facing of ermine. $850.
Driving Coat of mink, 45 inches long. Very fine. $750.

Jacket of Alaska seal skin, with top collar and deep revers of Russian sable. $350.
Collar of Hudson-Bay sable, 12 inches deep, trimmed with tails. $350.
Collar of broadtail, with long tabs; top collar and ruffe of chinchilla. $175.
Coat of broadtail, 40 in. long, made from selected skins; top collar of chinchilla. $500.

Silks That Men Can Buy
Each Christmas we choose two or three hundred styles of silks and cut off the proper lengths for skirt, for petticoat, for waist, for dress—each neatly tied with pretty ribbon.

We have the selections in Black Silks made—so, if you, Mr. Man, care to surprise your wife right away with silk for a garment or costume, you may choose today—

Dress Length for $10 or almost any price up to $28.
Waist Length, $2.25 to $6.75.
Skirt Length, $5.75 to $8.
And black silks are best gifts of all.

Tea Cloths, Renaissance lace and Scarfs
Reduced. You'll wonder at that—for the pieces are quite fine. But it is simply to give all the show to the new lot. There are just a few of each of these pieces—scarcely worth sampling.

Renaissance lace is almost as cheaply bought as made, for it is the fill-in work of the French peasants, when weather stops out-of-door work.

Tea Cloths, 45 in. square, linen center, $4.75. We're half as much again.
Tea Cloths, round, 54 in. across, $6.75 from $10.
Center pieces, round and square—18 to 20 in. across, 75c to $1.50.
Scarfs, 20x54 in., $1.90. Some were $3.25.

Blankets
If one seeks the greatest intrinsic value, then Gray Blankets are the things to buy—and we are selling more and more of them—up to the quite beautiful "silver grays." If by accident or nature's freak, wool is not all white, it can be bought cheaper. So, pound for pound, the gray blanket costs least—and every quality of them is obtainable.

At $5 a pair—All-wool gray blankets, 72x82 in.; weight, 5 pounds.
Scarlet blankets, much the same—At $7 a pair—Splendid all-wool scarlet blankets, 72x84 in.; weight, 6 pounds.
For luxury and house-wifely pride, white by all means.

At $6 a pair—Wool-filled, cotton-warp white blankets, 72x84 in.; weight, 6 pounds.
At $5.50 a pair—Wool-filled, cotton-warp white blankets, 72x84 in.; weight, 6 pounds.
Down Quilts—our own careful make—6x6 feet. Figured sateen covers holding downless and satisfactory down, $3.75 and $5.

Furniture Bargains--Sample Pieces

One of the men who makes furniture for us was a large exhibitor at the Furniture Exposition. He asks us to sell the pieces and his factory samples. All right. There is a fine saving for Our Public. The furniture is inexpensive but well made. About a hundred pieces.

Ten styles Library Tables, cheapest $4.50 instead of $7.
Forty styles Parlor Tables, cheapest $2 instead of $3.
Eight styles Tabletopettes, cheapest 75c instead of $1.25.
Seven styles Toilet Tables, cheapest $6.50 instead of $10.
Seventeen styles of Hall Racks, cheapest $5 instead of $8.
Only one piece of a kind, as a rule.

Important Dress Goods News

Wool goes higher and higher—the dress-goods weavers are agast. The first result will be a lessening of effort on the part of domestic millmen; might as well not try to force a business that one can't see the end of. The home situation is reflective to some extent. But while prices point higher and producers are non-plussed, we shall help you, help importers and ourselves, by distributing a good many fine dress fabrics at

Less Prices Than Ever

All these goods are entirely new—the choicer stuffs of the year.

Black Goods—
FRENCH DRAP D'ETE
75c a yard for the $1.65 quality.
85c a yard for the $1.75 quality.
90c a yard for the $1.85 quality.
$1 a yard for the $2 quality.
And these richer novelties from Paris—
$2 from $2.50—French Boucle—Striped
Camel's-hair Suits.
$2.50 from $3—Silk-and-wool Crepons in elaborate designs.
$3 from $4—Silk-and-wool wavy-cord Velours.
$3.50 from $4.50—French Boucle—Striped
Camel's-hair Suits.
$4 from $6—Velvet-chenille-figured silk-and-wool Crepons.
Tenth street and Fourth Avenue.

Colored Fabrics—
$1 from $1.50—Camel's-hair Striped Chevrons—black-and-gray stripes on colored grounds.
$1.25 from $1.50—Silk-and-wool Matelasse Velours.

Men's Suits To Order
We can take one hundred—maybe a hundred and two or three—orders for suits at $25 and make them from the fabrics intended for $30 to $45 suits. With business getting bigger and bigger, the chief of stocks got a trifle reckless, and somewhat over-bought. We never permit stocks to stay unwieldy to even a small extent. The first loss is quickest cure for a blunder.

Thanksgiving Chocolates
We've told, over and over again, how we can sell really toothsome candies at 20c a pound (and you know that all our confections are our own make, even the daintiest of bon-bons, and we know all are pure). For this Thanksgiving week—
Chocolate-covered Marshmallows
Chocolate-covered Nougat
Chocolate Eclairs
Caramels, and Mixed Chocolates—all at 20c a pound. Not mixed. Basement and Fifth floor.

Women's Spangled Hats
The frame or foundation is French, and, untrimmed, is a six dollar hat. The trimmings are of the costliest kind and the work is the kind that is making Wanamaker millinery the standards of elegance.

A mere hand-ful—toggles, turbans and bonnets—at ten dollars. Our trimmers finished the last one late Saturday evening.
Second floor, Broadway and Tenth.

"Loyal Hearts and True"
A new book, the first in two years by Ruth Ogden, whose work has so endeared her to young people. The story concerns the adventures of a group of children who form themselves into "The Dry Dock Club," and who have their headquarters in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. By means of a narrative, that boys and girls will enjoy and be greatly interested in, a clear view is presented to them of the causes for our war with Spain, and of its important events. Illustrated by Harry A. Ogden. Size 4 1/4 x 7 1/2 inches, cloth, $1. Ninth street.

Upholstery
What of newness? And by "newness" you mean "novelty." The drapery stuffs from India—that land of color where the trees and shrubs grow quite as queer as they are pictured. An alcove full of these Indian helps toward cozy corner and den.

Lanterns as well—some at $1.40; some charming ones at $7.
Newly-arrived Damascus Curtains, $3 a pair.
Java Prints, for cozy corner draperies, $2 to $3.50 a pair.
Victoria-Velour Table Covers. Too many of the 6-4 size, so we reduce them from $3.75 to $2.50. All the other sizes are here—$4 at $1.50 to 2x3 yards at $12.50.

Whatever your wish or scheme in interior decorations, we can give skillful help towards its perfecting. We never were so busy.

Shirt Waists and Flannel Shirts
House Dresses are well-classed as Christmas gifts—two fine styles, in all the pretty colorings—$2.75 and $3.75.

We deliver them in a neat gift-box if you wish it.
House Dresses are giveable, as well. We'll deliver them in fancy boxes, is requested—

$1 for neat Percale House Dresses, trimmed with braid.
$1.50 and $1.75 for House Dresses more extensively made.
$2.25 for House Dresses of neat striped gingham; pointed yoke back and front—full front; yoke and collar trimmed with braid and cording.

Carvers
Somehow a good effective carving set seems thoroughly in keeping with the Thanksgiving dinner—and adds to the carver's cause for thanks-giving.

Stag-handle Carver and Fork, $1.15. With plated silver ferrules, $1.60.
Another, silver ferrules, $2.75.
Better, sterling silver, very fine, $9.
Steak-carving Set, stag-handle, $1.
By-the-way, the Tete-a-tete Carving Sets will appeal to many. Sterling silver handles. $3.50 for knife and fork.
Roast Forks (a Carver's Helper), $2.50. Silver ferrule.

Of course all the good sorts—and good-and-beautiful sorts—of Dinner and Dessert Knives are ready.

In the Bargain Store ON FIFTH FLOOR

there are the usual chances for buying goods of our usual full-standard at less than their worth. No tricks, not the ghost of a trick; no exaggeration. We simply adjust our stocks and those of wholesalers asking our aid, through this exchange. Somebody's direct loss.

Today—Towels, Silk Remnants, Lamps, Women's Trimmed Hats, Dress Goods, Japanese Goods.

As a rule, half prices—some more; some less.
